Contributors	vii	SECTION II: CLINICAL ANALGESIA
Acknowledgments	xiii	11. Qualitative and Quantitative Assessment of Pain	147
Foreword: Historical Perspective, Unmet Needs, and Incidence	xv	Cynthia M. Welchek, Lisa Mastrangelo, Raymond S. Sinatra, and Richard Martinez
Henry McQuay		12. The Role of Preventive Multimodal Analgesia and Impact on Patient Outcome	172
SECTION I: PAIN PHYSIOLOGY AND PHARMACOLOGY		Scott S. Reuben and Asokumar Buvanendran
1. Pain Pathways and Acute Pain Processing	3	13. Oral and Parenteral Opioid Analgesics for Acute Pain Management	188
Nalini Vadivelu, Christian J. Whitney, and Raymond S. Sinatra		Raymond S. Sinatra
2. Pathophysiology of Acute Pain	21	14. Intravenous Patient-Controlled Analgesia	204
M. Khurram Ghori, Yu-Fan (Robert) Zhang, and Raymond S. Sinatra		Pamela E. Macintyre and Julia Coldrey
3. Patient Variables Influencing Acute Pain Management	33	15. Clinical Applications of Epidural Analgesia	221
Joshua Wellington and Yuan-Yi Chia		Daniel B. Maalouf and Spencer S. Liu
4. Acute Pain: A Psychosocial Perspective	41	16. Neuraxial Analgesia with Hydromorphone, Morphine, and Fentanyl: Dosing and Safety Guidelines	230
Francis J. Keefe		Susan Dabu-Bondoc, Samantha A. Franco, and Raymond S. Sinatra
5. Nonsteroidal Anti-Inflammatory Drugs and Acetaminophen: Pharmacology for the Future	53	17. Regional Anesthesia	245
Jon McCormack and Ian Power		James Benonis, Jennifer Fortney, David Hardman, and Gavin Martin
6. Local Anesthetics in Regional Anesthesia and Acute Pain Management	70	18. Regional Anesthesia for Acute Pain Management in the Outpatient Setting	287
John Butterworth		Holly Evans, Karen C. Nielsen, Marcy S. Tucker, and Stephen M. Klein
7. Pharmacology of Novel Non-NSAID Analgesics	82	19. Patient-Controlled Analgesia Devices and Analgesic Infusion Pumps	302
P. M. Lavand'homme and M. F. De Kock		Benjamin Sherman, Ikay Enu, and Raymond S. Sinatra
8. Pharmacokinetics of Epidural Opioids	102	20. Novel Analgesic Drug Delivery Systems for Acute Pain Management	323
Bradley Urie and Oscar A. de Leon-Casasola		James W. Heitz and Eugene R. Viscusi
9. Transitions from Acute to Chronic Pain	109
Frederick M. Perkins
10. Molecular Basis and Clinical Implications of Opioid Tolerance and Opioid-Induced Hyperalgesia	114
Larry F. Chu, David Clark, and Martin S. Angst
